Sustainability criteria in the investment process

The topic of sustainability plays an important role at Wyss & Partner in many areas of the company. Wyss & Partner takes into account social and ecological criteria as well as issues relating to proper corporate management in the investment process. These criteria help to better assess and monitor opportunities and risks in investment decisions.

Active ownership

Wyss & Partner has regulated the active exercise of voting rights in an internal directive. Active voting rights are generally exercised when the share of voting rights in a company exceeds a critical value of the voting capital, which is specified in the 'Engagement Policy'.
